DETAILED ACTION

This office action is responsive to communication filed on 04/03/2006.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1 - 42, drawn to a method of defining customization for electronic content retrieved over an electronic.

Group II, claim(s) 43 - 47, drawn to a method of editing content.

Group III, claim(s) 48 - 49, drawn to an HTTP intermediary.

Group IV, claim(s) 50, drawn to a browser having downloaded thereto at least one client side code, said client side code adapted to at least one of allow editing of content and determine changes due to editing of content.

The inventions listed as Groups I, II, III, and IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Group I defines modifying data provided according to one customization definition for electronic content. Group II carrying out the idea of editing content at a third location, using a viewer for viewing said editing application. Group III discloses an

HTTP intermediary between a server and a user. Group IV discloses a browser having downloaded thereto at least one client side code, said client side code adapted to at least one of allow editing of content and determine changes due to editing of content.

A telephone call was made to Martin D. Moynihan on 1/21/2009 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
